

Read Prison Planet Barbarian By Ruby Dixon

Being kidnapped by aliens is one thing. Being kidnapped by aliens and sent to a prison planet is something infinitely worse. Here in Haven's prison system, I'm stranded among strangers, enemies, and the most ruthless criminals in the galaxy. There's no safety for a human woman here, especially not one branded as a murderer. I'm doomed to a fate worse than death. Then -- he decides I should be his. His name's Jutari. He's seven feet tall, blue, and horned. He's an assassin and one of the most dangerous prisoners here. He's like no one I've ever met before...and he might be my only chance. This story stands completely alone and is only marginally connected to the Ice Planet Barbarians series. You do not need to read those books in order to follow this one.

If you want to read just one, read this story By Martha Jones This is Chloe's story. It is a stand alone. She was briefly mentioned in a previous book. Her experience with blue barbarians is completely different. She finds herself convicted of murder (which actually occurred by accident) when she kicked her new owner as a sex slave. Since he was triple connected with others of his species she killed 9 and an ambassador. Her arrival on the planet Haven - a combo terraforming project and prison - sets the stage for her introduction to Jutari. He immediately is drawn to Chloe and claims her. Using his connections and reputation. Inside the prison she is brought to his cell as punishment. A corrupt prison guard wants her punished thru rape by Jutari and all the other alien males in his cell. This story was fresh and had lots of action, characters, and a well defined plot. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful.
