Review "An impeccable romance with deep characters searching for love....the sky's the limit for what we can hope from Kimberly Kincaid in the future." —Fresh Fiction "Sexy, fresh, and from the heart, Kimberly Kincaid will have readers coming back for more." —Brenda Novak, New York Times bestselling author "This is a sweet story with two really likable characters. Though Hunter had his heart broken by Emerson, both were mature enough to understand that who they were at eighteen years old is different than who they are now. They took their time getting to know each other again. It was this sort of maturity in these characters that really attracted me to this story." —Down and Dirty Reads

About the Author Kimberly Kincaid writes contemporary romance that splits the difference between sexy and sweet. When she's not sitting cross-legged in an ancient desk chair that she calls "the Pleather Bomber," she can be found practicing crazy amounts of yoga, whipping up everything from enchiladas to éclairs in her kitchen, or curled up with her nose in a book. Kimberly is a USA Today bestselling author and a 2016 and 2015 RWA RITA finalist who lives (and writes!) by the mantra "Food is love." She resides in Virginia with her wildly patient husband and their three daughters.

Most stories aren't about a medical issue/disease and that's what makes this story unique. Emerson's MS issue, pushy parents aren't going to get her down. Second chance love and family heal the heart. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Enjoyable story By Sharon I guess the only thing that I didn't like was the ending. I get the gist, but I wish it had continued a little further. Did they marry?? This was well written and had an enjoyable storyline. Second chances but with complications. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Winner By Nancy Knox What a great story. Family, first love reuniting and a few issues getting in the way. I loved it so much I just pre ordered book 2 in the series. See all 163 customer reviews...
